

BAPTIST HELLES

When it comes to a quaffable beer, nothing beats the Bavarian-style Helles made by Goller. Named after a great uncle named Baptist, who was famous for his easy-going manner, the Baptist Helles presents a malt-forward flavor mixed with honey and spice, lightly hopped with Spalter Select. With its light golden appearance this smooth lager offers a surprising depth of flavor that lingers long in your mouth. Pair with white fish, pretzels and berries.
